A Ann Chanon

DESIGNING YOUR GARDEN WITH FRUITS

OSU Extension, Lorain County, Agriculture & Natural Resources Educator

Fruits in my beds and in containers? It's time to challenge our paradigm! Our OSU Extension fruit expert shows us how to incorporate dwarf fruit trees, shrubs, espalier and containers into our traditional garden design.

B Deyampert Giles

SO, YOU THINK YOU KNOW ROSES?

Horticulturalist, Holden Forests and Gardens

This dynamic speaker will share his impressive knowledge of our beloved Rosa, covering history, botanical illustrations, classifications, Growing Degree Days, best horticultural practices and, most importantly, the deadly Rose Rosette Virus spreading through the country.

C Courtney Blashka

TREE PLANTING FOR THE FUTURE

Community Forester, Holden Forests & Gardens

Join a Holden forester to learn how tree selections are changing with changing climate and forest threats. Whether choosing a small ornamental tree or doing a legacy planting, this talk will give you and your future tree(s) a head start toward health and longevity.

Afternoon Seminar Sessions

Keynote

Tim Malinich

No Till, No Kidding

OSU Extension Educator, Erie County, and Nursery Industry Consultant

TIM'S BACK! Our veteran educator's advice will include "no-till's" effect on soil structure, encouraging flora and fauna, weeding, fertility and more!

Afternoon Sessions
