

Spring 2012 Garden Design Symposium

Friday, April 20, 2012

8:30 a.m. to 5:00 p.m.

Cox Arboretum, Dayton, Ohio

The Ohio State University Extension Gardening Symposium Series

The OSU Extension, Garden Design Symposium Series, continues for Spring, 2012 with two exciting speakers and a workshop event.

Teresa Jones, Annuals Manager at Meadow View Growers

Teresa will present information on a wide range of plant material for use in the landscape. She will also offer design suggestions for placement in your landscape for maximum effect.

Dwight Goodin, Landscape Designer, Paver Planet

Dwight will present his "Five Step Process to Landscape Design." This simplified, easy-to-learn approach will give you useful tools for creating your landscape design, plus tips for moving past the hurdles many homeowners face when starting a landscape project.

The Symposium Workshop

This year's workshop puts the "Five Step Process to Landscape Design" into practice. You will take part in a step-by-step workshop with assistance to help you prepare a residential landscape design. A pre-printed base plan will be provided for you.
