

Intro to Invasive Plants & Pests

Saturday, March 30th, 9:30-3:30pm
Goodyear Heights Pavilion – West Room
2077 Newton St., Akron, OH 44305

*Invasive species are a growing threat to Ohio's ecosystems.
Join us for an in-depth overview of the most problematic invasive species in Ohio.
Workshop will cover invasive plants and pests.*

Speakers Include:

Jim Chatfield

Associate Professor and Extension Specialist

John Cardina

Professor, Department of Horticulture and Crop Science

Joe Boggs

Assistant Professor, Department of Entomology & Extension Educator,
Hamilton County

Program fee is $30. Doors open at 9:15am. Program will begin at 9:30am.
Workshop will count as 5 CEs. For more information, contact Danae Wolfe at Wolfe.540@osu.edu or 330-928-4769 ext. 17.

Registration

(Class size limited. Register early. Workshop is limited to Master Gardener Volunteers.)

Name: _____

Address: _____

City, State, Zip: _____

Telephone: _____ Email: _____

County: _____

Boxed lunches from Panera Bread are included with the price of registration.
Lunch options (please check one):

- Smoked Turkey Breast
- Mediterranean Veggie
- Tuna Salad
- Smoked Ham and Swiss

Make checks payable to OSU Extension. Mail registration and check to: Danae Wolfe, OSU Extension, 2525 State Rd., Suite 250 Cuyahoga Falls, OH 44223.

